I want to thank Jennifer Wilk, Holly Hooe and Sadie McIntyre for presenting to school board on Monday. Also big thanks to the Westview parents and staff who attended to lend their support to our presenters. I have attached a link to our presentation. If you need more reason as to why this needs to happen for us please read through our presentation. We are waiting the board's decision. <https://tinyurl.com/yceg8f33>

WHS Library, Chrome, and Canvas Corner

Canvas: Want to see the library resources available at home for your students on Canvas? Click here to view our WHS Library and Research Resources page <http://bit.ly/whslibrary2>. Students have access to librarian approved research databases and search engines at school and at home.

Library:

Does your student have a library card? Washington County Cooperative Library Service has made it super: <http://bit.ly/onlinewccsl> With the eAccess library card, students can check out audio and eBooks, get free online tutoring, and utilize many services. The best part: no fines or fees!

Digital Citizenship

From coverage of the latest natural disaster to the current news from Hollywood, news media is part of our students daily lives. To help make sense of current events, sifting fact from opinion--or misinformation--check out this Common Sense Media help page: <http://bit.ly/whsexplainingnews>

College and Career Corner

11-6-17 Hispanic Chamber Of Commerce Scholarship Presentations

11-9-17 ROTC Scholarship Presentation. Also, University of Oregon will be on campus conducting an application tutorial session.

11- 16-17 Future Connect Scholarship Presentation includes Oregon Promise, FAFSA, and ORSA Scholarship Presentation Dates and Details are on Canvas

The ORSAA is now open and available for students to complete who are not eligible for the FAFSA.

ASPIRE Mentor Letters are going home introducing the program for students signed up to receive mentoring.

There is a scholarship list up on Canvas and coming soon to the website. The list will be continually updated throughout the year.

Seniors: Be checking application deadlines and the scholarship deadlines through the institutions where applying.

Free Online Tutoring with your Library Card

Do you ever wish a professional tutor was available to pop by whenever your student had a question about the algebra homework or needs help with AP French or to proof read that English/Language Arts paper?

Washington County Cooperative Library Services (WCCLS) is happy to announce that BrainFuse HelpNow offers real-time online homework help with professional tutors from 1:00 – 10:00 p.m. every day for students from kindergarten-college AND offers help in Spanish! So if you know someone who struggles with fractions, decoding word problems, or just need help understanding an assignment BrainFuse HelpNow is there for you. Best of all, it's free to use with your library card!

To get your library card visit any WCCLS library including: Aloha Community Library, Beaverton City Library (Main and Murray Scholls), Cedar Mill Community Library (Main and Bethany), Garden Home Community Library, and the West Slope Community Library.
